Accommodation

Accommodation is arranged for students by the school from the day before the course starts, until the morning after the course ends. Students will receive details of their address 7 days before the course starting date, unless they enrol late.

Insurance

Students should arrange their own personal and baggage insurance as well as their own travel insurance to cover medical and repatriation costs in the case of accident or illness.

Course Cancellation

- If notification of cancellation is received by ISE more than 14 days before the start of the course, ISE will retain the deposit. If notification of cancellation is received less than 14 days before the start of the course, ISE will charge 50% of the fees. In the event of cancellation after the commencement or before the end of the course, no fees can be reimbursed.
- No refund of fees can be made to any student who has been issued with a GSV, ESVV or CAS letter of invitation for immigration purposes unless an official letter of refusal, issued by either UKBA or The British Embassy is produced. Students who have been issued with a GSV, ESVV or CAS letter of invitation who then decide not to apply to travel to the UK, or who travel to the UK and do not attend will not be entitled to any refund of fees in any circumstances. ISE maintain strict records of applicants and any non-travelling, non-arriving or non-attending students will be reported to the appropriate authorities.
- Any refund of fees will be made via the same method of original payment, to the same originator of funds. ISE cannot refund fees to any third party in any circumstances.
- Any refund of fees will be sent net of bank or exchange rate charges as applied by HSBC.

Further conditions

- ISE only acts as an intermediary between its students and travel organisations on the one hand and host family on the other. Under no circumstances can it be held liable for any delay or accident during a excursion, activity or journey, nor can it be held liable for any accident that may happen during the student's stay.
- ISE reserves the right not to allow on the course a student suffering from any mental or physical disability that has not been disclosed on the Registration Form.
- The ISE Hove website at www.isehove.com gives the only information that can be referred to in the event of a disagreement between the student and ISE.
- ISE reserves the right to alter the advertised class timetable, including to suspend, amalgamate or cancel courses without liability if obliged to by circumstances beyond its' control including through low demand. In such cases ISE will offer an alternative venue, date or time or offer a full / partial refund of fees as appropriate to the situation at the discretion of the Managing Director.
- ISE reserve the right to make further enquiries about any application received from outside the EU and not to accept any student application from outside the EU, for any reason whatsoever.
